Coverage Across Insurance Types

Commercial/Private insurance

While many commercial carriers cover our tests for eligible patients, coverage varies by product and your specific plan. Contact our Customer Service team or your insurance carrier for an individual assessment.

Exact Sciences* is an in-network provider with many health plans, including Aetna, Anthem, Cigna, Humana, and United Healthcare.

Exact Sciences performs the services ordered and deemed medically necessary, regardless of network provider status.[†]

* Genomic Health Inc. is the billing entity for Oncotype DX[®], OncoExTra[®], and Riskguard[™] tests.

[†] Patients may have financial responsibility for a co-pay, co-insurance, deductible, or non-covered charges as determined by their insurance.

Medicare

Fee For Service Medicare and Medicare Advantage plans cover each of our tests for eligible members.

$0 financial responsibility for Medicare fee-for-service (FFS) when coverage criteria are met. Out-of-pocket costs for Medicare Advantage members, if any, are determined by the patient's insurance company.¹

Medicaid

While many state Medicaid programs and Managed Medicaid carriers cover our tests for eligible patients, coverage varies by state, by product, and by specific health plan. Contact our Customer Service team or your insurance carrier for an individual assessment.

Uninsured and underinsured

We work with patients to help them understand their coverage and payment options.

Process – We support you through each step

Your doctor orders a test.

We check your insurance coverage, and when necessary, we will work with your doctor's office and insurance company to submit a prior authorization.

Once your test results are ready, we will bill your insurance.

Your insurance company will send you an Explanation of Benefits (EOB). Your insurance will determine if you owe any out-of-pocket costs, and this should be detailed on your EOB. Note an EOB is not a bill.

Because insurance coverage varies, we strongly encourage you to contact your insurer if you have questions about coverage and potential out-of-pocket costs.

If your insurance denies payment, Exact Sciences will submit appeals on your behalf, if appeals options are available*.

Once all actions with your insurance are complete, if you have any remaining balance, you will receive a bill from Exact Sciences†.
